Tehsil Murree, District Rawalpindi, Pakistan.

OBJECTIVE

I am Sidra, a passionate Web Developer and dedicated self-learner. I've completed my Bachelor of Science in Computer Science (BSCS) from the Virtual University of Pakistan. I'm skilled in HTML, CSS, Bootstrap and JavaScript, and I am currently learning React.js to enhance my front-end capabilities. Additionally, I have experience in PHP and MySQL for backend development. With my diverse skill set, I am well-prepared to tackle complex projects and make meaningful contributions to the field of computer science.
